

Volunteer Commitment Charter

1. Spirit of Commitment

By joining Beyt Mar Maroun, I commit to serving in a spirit of:

- respect for every person, without distinction
- compassion and humility
- generosity and discretion
- fidelity to the human and spiritual values of the mission

2. Respect for the Person

I commit to:

- welcoming each person with dignity
- refraining from judgment, unsolicited advice, or imposing my views
- respecting each person's pace, story, and sensitivity

3. Confidentiality

I commit to:

- maintaining strict confidentiality regarding all shared information
- never disclosing personal information outside the appropriate framework
- safeguarding the privacy and dignity of those we serve

4. Listening Attitude

I commit to:

- practicing attentive and active listening
- being present without trying to "fix" or control
- referring to the team or professionals when needed

5. Teamwork

I commit to:

- working in coordination with the team
- seeking support when needed
- respecting roles and organizational guidelines

6. Commitment in Practice

I commit to:

- honoring my stated availability
- informing the team in case of absence
- carrying out even small tasks with seriousness and care

7. Formation & Growth

I commit to:

- participating in training sessions
- receiving feedback with openness
- growing in my role and mission

8. Inner Attitude

I commit to:

- serving with simplicity and joy
- recognizing my limits
- caring for myself in order to care for others

Commitment

I acknowledge that I have read and understood this charter and commit to upholding it as a volunteer at Beyt Mar Maroun.
